NKWD Participates in Go Green! Science Night Tapwater Ted Mascot Makes Appearance at Ft. Wright Elementary

Erlanger, KY – The Northern Kentucky Water District’s (NKWD) mascot, Tapwater Ted, again participated in Go Green! Science Night on March 30th at Ft. Wright Elementary School. He was such a huge hit with the students last year he was invited back! The event, which is designed to promote education awareness for community members and parents, was held in the gymnasium of Ft. Wright Elementary School from 5:30 – 8:00 pm.
